Phi Epsilon Mu Sponsors Athletic Exhibitions, Dance Tonight in Gym

Tonight at 7 o'clock, Phi Epsilon Mu, honorary physical education fraternity, will unveil its first post-war sports night. On the program will be five boxing matches, wrestling, tumbling, an acrobatic dance and a dance in the gym after the athletic events are concluded.

Feature of the night will be the five boxing matches for the intramural championships in the respective divisions. The matches, which will start at 7 sharp, will be held in a ring to be erected outdoors in the rally bowl.

The boxing matches, refereed by Lee Alderman and judged by Dick Webster, Ru Stone and George Lorbeer, will take place in the following order: 1. Irv Edstrom vs. Jack Wood; 2. Gil Soloman vs. Harry Erlich; 3. Grudge battle between two members of the San Francisco Boys' Club; 4. Ed Melendez vs. Jack Levisone; 5. Armand Quartini vs. Ivor Calloway.

DICK BOYLE
SPONSORS SPORTNIGHT

Following the boxing will be a wrestling exhibition between Ane and Charley Getas of the Central Y. M. C. A. The scene will then shift to the women's gym, where Dick Wind, Vince McGrath and Al Larin will give an exhibition of tumbling, and the Columbia Park Boys' Club will perform on the trampoline.

The final of the program will be another of Corky Calvert's interpretive dances. The dance after the show is the only portion of the program which will cost anything, with the prices being 25 cents with student body card per person and 35 cents per couple.

A.W.S. Sup 'n' Chat Social Wednesday In Co-op at 5 P.M.

The semi-annual Sup 'n' Chat, sponsored by the Associated Women Students as a social get-together for all women of the college, will be held next Wednesday, May 22, at 5 p. m. in the Co-op.

Included at the event will be installation of new officers, with Barbara Mocker as president, Miriam Prosser as vice-president, and Pat Caswell as secretary, being installed into their respective offices.

"All college women are urged to attend this always popular occasion," stated Prexy Mary Jane Parker, "especially freshmen and other new students who wish to become acquainted with their fellow students."

COMMITTEES ARRANGED

In charge of the dinner will be Barbara Mocker, assisted by Bib 'n' Tucker members who will help to serve at tables. Heading the food committee is June Dolan; poster committee, Lillian Starico, and decorations committee, Bea Fitzgerald.

Co-op Adopts Food Conservation Drive

"Don't Waste Food" became the slogan in the student Co-op during the past week, as the entire nation planned to conserve vital foodstuffs in order to alleviate starvation in war-torn countries.

As a part of this national drive the Co-op management wishes to call attention to the various ways in which the college students can cooperate. It is suggested that students buy only as much food as they will eat, and that they eat everything on their trays.

In scraping trays it has been found that food is being wasted. Two-thirds of the milk bottles are not emptied, and pie crust, which contains wheat, is not eaten. Students should not accept bread with the plate lunch if they do not intend to eat it.

"There is a difference between well-fed and overfed, and Americans are guilty of overfeeding at a time when, literally, their brothers are starving," stated Miss Gertrude Luehning, Co-op manager. "Overfeeding in my definition would be to augment a plate lunch with items such as cake or pie. College students should be able to bear food burdens intelligently."

Blum Appointed Editor in Chief For Fall Term

At the semi-annual Gater banquet held at The Shack, the new editors of the Golden Gater, Franciscan and Inklings were announced for the fall semester. New editors chosen for the Gater are editor, Art Blum; assistant editor, Doris Thulin; managing editor, Pat Merrill; assistant managing editor, Vivian Allen; feature editor, Pat Healy; sports, Bill Kennerley; copy editor, Marne Camp and business manager, Betty Hickman.

Etta Bucholtz was appointed editor of the Franciscan for the ensuing year. Her assistant editors will be Vivian Allen and Doris Thulin. Marne Camp will edit the sports section of the annual and Dick Wind will serve as business manager.

Eugene Benefiel, who has worked on the editorial staff of Inklings for two semesters, was appointed editor.

Stater Aid Asked In Making S. F. World Art Center

Support of State students and faculty in a movement to "make San Francisco a world art center" is now being sought by Miss Evelyn Erickson, art instructor and member of the Committee for Municipal Arts.

The Art Federation is expected to add its weight to the city-wide campaign now in progress to place San Francisco prominently on the art map of the world, Miss Erickson disclosed. Financial support from the city government, to finance an outdoor art show, is also being requested.

"California is already well known through the world for its production in the fields of art," Miss Erickson said. "In light of the present world interest in the Orient, we are strategically located to become literally a crossroads of the world, advancing ideas, developing thoughts, broadening our

Ex-Gater Editor On Redding Daily

Betty Cloak, former director of publications and editor of the Golden Gater, is now an assistant editor of the Redding daily newspaper, the Record Searchlight.

After completing her work for graduation last February, Miss Cloak continued working in the circulation department of an Oakland newspaper, a position she had held for several years while attending college, until called to the editorial position in Redding.

During her editorship the Gater won the National Scholarstic Press Association's All-American award, the highest possible distinction.

RUN-OFF ELECTIONS SLATED FOR TODAY

Run-off elections will be held today for those not receiving the prescribed majority of votes in the general elections held last week.

Running for secretary of the student body are: Clara Caburi, Dorothy Damon, and Doris Hoffman.

For the Board of Directors, lower division under 16 units are Jean Spaulding, Scott Hope, and Marne Camp. Students will choose two from above.

Margaret Shearer is the only candidate for the under 32 units spot. In the upper division bracket will be a run-off between Hal Juster, and Ellerth Larson.

SENIOR BALL SET FOR JUNE 1st at CLAREMONT

State's annual Senior Ball will be held June 1 from nine to one o'clock in the Spanish Room of the Hotel Claremont according to Prexy Ed Osorio. Ray Hackett's orchestra will furnish the music. Bids for the affair, which is to be semi-formal, are $2.75 per couple with student body card and $3.50 without.

This will be the last social function of the school year. The Senior Ball is one of the oldest traditions at State College. It is always the occasion for hundreds of co-eds dressed in their most glamorous formals, and men in tuxedos or dark suits. This year with so many returned vets at college capacity attendance is expected.

Mendelssohn's "Elijah" To Be Presented Next Sunday Afternoon

"Elijah," an oratorio by Mendelssohn, will be presented by the music department Sunday afternoon, May 26, at the Calvary Presbyterian Church, Fillmore and Jackson streets.

The leading roles will be sung by baritone soloists Slater Smith and Dean Sandhagen as Elijah; Obadiah, Gerard Sharkey, tenor; the widow, Lucille Ruff, soprano, and angel, Bettie Rowden, contralto. These singers will be supplemented by the chorus and orchestra.

The "Elijah" was first performed in 1846 with Mendelssohn himself conducting. The presentation was so overwhelmingly successful that all of the first part had to be repeated. The rules governing encores and elements of time were completely forgotten for the joy and thrill of this great presentation. Since then "Elijah" has won acclaim year after year, and will again seek this acclaim when State will present the well-known oratorio.

This will be the first major oratorio since 1941; prior to this, oratories were presented semi-annually.

The performance will begin at 3 o'clock and is open to the public.

Composers Workshop Concert Monday Eve

The Composer's Workshop, directed by Dr. Wendell Otey, will present a concert Monday evening, May 20, at 8:15 in Frederic Burk Auditorium.

Original compositions by members of the faculty and students from the music department will be played by soloists and instrumental groups. Compositions will include those written by Phil Laspina, Bob Martens, Barbara Warren, Dorothy Reimers, Helen Howen, Al Guiffre and Dr. Otey.

EDUC. 170 OFFERED IN SUMMER SESSION

In response to widespread demand Education 170, "Principles of Secondary Education," will be offered during the 1946 sumer session.

The course, a basic requirement for the secondary credential, will be substituted for "The Secondary Curriculum" listed in the summer session catalogue. Education 170 will be taught by Dr. J. Frederic Ching, principal of the San Leandro High School.

ALL GRADUATES MUST PASS HISTORY EXAM

Final word concerning the required examination in American government and history for graduating seniors, has come through from the Sacramento legislature, according to Dean P. F. Valentine, vice-president of the college.

All students graduating from this college after the 1946 summer session must pass a comprehensive examination in American government and history, regardless of any social science course they may have taken previously.

Music Classes Feature Concert

A concert featuring two-piano music and songs will be presented by the music 40, 111 and 311 classes Thursday evening, May 23, in the First Baptist Church, room 301 at 8. The concert is open to the public and the student body is cordially invited to attend.

EDITORIAL

YOUTH'S NO. 1 ENEMY

Before you read this—stop just a moment and think of some child or young person who is very dear to you.

Maybe you have a mental picture of your own son or daughter, or maybe it's a niece, a nephew or some cute neighborhood kid.

There isn't anything you wouldn't do, within your power, to prevent that youngster from injury or suffering.

Yet 20,000 such youngsters will be struck down this year utterly needlessly—unless something is done now to prevent such tragedy.

The tragedy of it all is that those accidents were preventable. They didn't just happen. They were caused. The causes of accidents can be removed by better and more widespread knowledge. These cities have shown concretely what can be done:

CITIES IMPROVE RECORD

St. Louis has reduced fatal home accidents 59 per cent in two years.

Cleveland, Rochester, Cincinnati and Detroit have cut vehicle accidental deaths nearly 50 per cent since 1935.

Kansas City cut traffic deaths among school children 65 per cent during the past 10 years.

Lansing, Mich., has reduced all types of accidental death 50 per cent since 1939.

SAFETY CAMPAIGN LAUNCHED

Those cities did something about the problem in their own communities. They removed the causes of accidents with a program of intelligent accident prevention activities. Those same types of activities need to be put into effect in all communities throughout the nation.

To accomplish this task, the National Safety Council is launching its first Green Gross for Safety Campaign during the month of May, to raise funds for an expanded accident prevention program. Your help is being sought.

BLUM'S BULLSESSION

Names N' The News

Etherized last week were two little Gator Misses, Jean Spaulding and Del Cevine, when they were interviewed over the mike along with Larry Stevens, Jack Benny's singing find . . . and we note that former Stater, Bill Roddy, is now the Mr. Announcer of KPO from 6 to 11 in the a. m. . . . while in the News, columnist Arthur Caylor is waging a fierce campaign to have the Opera Association here book Flo Quartararo to sing during the San Francisco Opera season!

BLUMMING AROUND STATE

Last Friday they were both answering a marriage questionnaire. The following day, Saturday, the two—Marge Shearer and Charlie Guichard became engaged! Which proves of course that you can have your Mr. Anthony and your Dr. Alexander. We've got Dr. Carlo Lastrucci—and his marriage questionnaires! Incidentally, we've just been informed of Ruth Fischer's engagement to Rube Schneider. Y'know, we get the scoop on engagements, but as yet, the Stork won't cooperate with us when we really could use a blessed event before deadline time! One more Marriage-Go-Rounder: Dick Bailey, arranger of State's Hymn, will wed Julie Stephanian, former Gatorette, on June 16 of this year.

Ignominiously pushing a mop in true enlisted man's fashion last week in the Coop was former Lt. Alex Edelstein, U. S. N., who found carrying a milkshake too much for one man too handle—and so, the mop! . . . Forrest Tarleton, incidentally, as host for the Fed at the recent festival, had a miserable time explaining to the group from Stockton J. C. that the bitter, cold wind prevalent was most unusual . . . and besides it's just too hot in Stockton anyway!

BUCHANAN BANTER

Back on the Heights last week was recently discharged Tony Calonico, former boxing ace . . . also back in San Francisco is Jack Kuckuchi, and he may return to College Hall soon . . . Accolades to busy, efficient Sally Golumb on her being chosen for Valedictorian of the graduating class . . . and to Facultyite, John Guttman, for his terrific photo of the Chronicle's Jack Foisie in last week's Sat. Eve Post . . . also with the Chronicle as Ad & Promotion Manager is former Gater Editor, Ernie Bicknell . . . finally an accolade to the new drink in the Co-op concocted by Vin McGrath. It's called a Cherry Cooler or Mac's Mickey Finn!

A proposed banquet with the old and new Executive Board as guests is in the offing . . . and included, incidentally, among next term's officers is Barbara Mocker, now president of the AWS!

STATE-LIGHTS

Do you think you're big enough to fill President Leonard's shoes . . . or pants? Well two vets, Jerry Sharkey and Glenn Jackson, got a chance to try last week when they were helping to clean the Leonard abode!

The work being a wee bit rough, the lads were offered Dr. L's trousers for work around the house. But "Sam," you made the pants too big!" and so Jerry and Glenn waddled more than they worked that day—which proves, of course, that Dr. Leonard's shoes may be filled, but his trousers . . . Never!

You Elected Them; Now Meet Them!

By Thorp, Parenti, and Merrill

It's time to get acquainted with the background of your new student body officers. Do you know which ones are and which ones have been? Of course, the whole truth, and nothing but the truth, cannot be told about them, but a few of the facts that can be revealed are being printed for the benefit of the student body in general. The writers will gladly accept any suits of liability, but no guarantee of their payment will be offered.

IZZIE PIVNICK

Izzie Pivnick, student body president, has made Gator history in the fields of sports, student affairs and general campus activities. He engages in varsity football and wrestling and is an indispensable member of the soccer and track teams, not to forget his membership in the Block "S". He has held the office of president of A.M.S., Phi Epsilon Mu, Sigma Alpha Eta and the freshman class; not stopping with this success he went on to the position of secretary of the student body and executive board membership. During the war he was known to his fellow G. I.'s as Captain Pivnick, after working his way through the ranks from private. Having made the grade as senior, Izzie intends to graduate with an education major, specializing in P. E. and hygiene.

JUNE DOLAN

June Dolan, vice-president elect, is affiliated wiht the fashion group on campus, Bib 'n' Tucker. Miss Dolan is the current vice-president of the A.W.S. and is a member of Sigma Phi Sigma. A native of San Francisco, she is enrolled at State as a social service major.

DON BURCH

Don Burch, student body treasurer, is the driver of the school bus — has anybody seen his license? Mr. Burch, who undoubtedly plans to take a South American tour is a member of the International Relations Club. His membership in the Associated Veteran Students is purely coincidental. If the president of the student body holds his treasurer by the hand the relationship will be strictly mercenary.

ART BLUM

Art Blum, member at large and famed columnist on the Gater, has been a freshman class officer and twice feature editor of the Gater. Mr. Blum is a journalism major, and is now a member of the junior class. Serving with the infantry in Europe, he was a member of Patton's Third Army.

PAT HEALY

Pat Healy, member at large, is the gal at the end of the co-op line who takes your money and dares you to ask for change. Miss Healy, a journalism and social science major, is now managing editor of the Gater and was formerly assistant editor. She is a member of the executive council of the Newman Club, and is a member of Alpha Phi Gamma, national journalism fraternity. She is a high junior.

WALT SUGGS

Activities is the first position Walt Suggs ever held at State. In high school he was Frosh President and a Yell Leader. He served in the 15th Air Force as a B24 pilot during the war. On the outside he belongs to the Olympic club. Behind him he has a list of experiences which will undoubtedly help him to be an efficient Activities Commissioner.

Here They Are! State's 1946 Officers

HY BIK

My name is Hy Bik. I used to go here. But I don't go here anymore. Now I am in the Army. I am fighting for you.

But, someday, I shall return. I will stand on the smoke porch with my fingers in my hand, searching longingly, longingly searching for some familiar face. Guenever, oh Guenever! In this, my hour of need, I need you, Guenever Schlockhammer.

GIRLS, GIRLS, GIRLS

I was a member of State's lost battalion. There were six of them to every one of us — girls, girls, girls, womans all over the place. Upon payment of my student body fees, my six were assigned to me. I quickly dropped five. That left Guenever . . . dear, sweet Guenever — always leaning over my shoulder during exams with a soft-spoken word of encouragement, always helping me out in the Co-op, making sure I didn't make a pig of myself.

VETS WIN OUT

I know now that I shall never again see my love. I have friends at State, and they have been keeping me informed. The veterans, I understand, have taken over everything, and by now Guenever, too, must have been enmeshed, lured on by the glitter of civilian clothes.

Veterans, I plead with you. You do not realize the heartache you are causing in many similar cases throughout the nation. Why impose yourself upon a society adjusted to your absence? The Regular Army offers travel, adventure, education. The Regular Army needs MEN. Enlist today!

VETS! ENLIST TODAY! ARMY-BIK WANT YOU!

From the Michigan State college campus comes a report of a fad which has been discovered among returned veterans who have begun wearing their "homing pigeon" discharge buttons upside down to signify they are bachelors.

I'm an uninvited guest, they say;
They wish I'd never come their way.
Though I'm seldom seen, and never heard,
I rarely draw a friendly word.

I never get a month's rest;
They run me down like a common pest.
I'm not complaining, but I think those guys
Should pick on someone their own size.

I never eat more than is my share
When I sit down to a bill of fare,
But they spray me over with DDT
Can I help it if I'm a flea?

State and Cal WAA softball teams split a twin bill at Hayward Playground last Friday. Betty Blue hurled the Gator Gals to a 6 to 2 victory in one game, while Cal took an 8 to 7 slugfest in the other contest. Gloria Gamba paced an 18 hit batting attack in State's winning effort with three singles and a triple, while Mary Fabry pounded out three singles in three attempts.

More able support came from Frances Galloway, Carmel Mullin, Mary O'Looney, Helen Johnson and other enthusiastic softballers.

Refreshments in the club house were enjoyed by members of both colleges after the game.

That leg of all colors that Doris Hickenbottom is sporting is a result of an attempted steal to second base. It seems that Doris slid a little too hard with two outs in the last inning, and all she received for her effort and scratches was the remaining out.

ADVANCED TOURNAMENT

Team "C," with tall, blonde Helen Hansen of the gorgeous tan, as captain, met Team "B," captained by Mary O'Looney, last Monday noon to sail through to a 19-3 victory. Gloria Gamba of Team "C" led off the game with a single to left field and from then on it was a run-away game for these sluggers. The second inning was a field day for the "C's" with three singles for Gamba, a double and a single for Hansen, a double and a single for Pat Norman, two singles for Pat Norman, two singles for Mary Falbo and a single for Jean Burns.

Pitcher Phoebe Turner started off Team "B's" first inning with a promising single followed up by another single by O'Looney. Their initial effort came to an abrupt end, however, with two nice catches made by Lene Struckmeyer in the outfield.

Jean Mahrt was the pitcher for Team "C," keeping the hits down to a minimum; Doris Hickenbottom and Ruth Foster were umpires, with Hickenbottom out in the field and Foster behind home plate.

TEAM "A" STILL IN LEAD

Keeping their lead, Team "A," captained by Dot Damon, met O'Looney's Team "B," on Tuesday noon, to come through with a 13-4 victory. With Muriel Tullis again in the pitcher's box for Damon's team, the game was an easy win for the strongest team in the tournament. Umpires for the game were Betty Blue and Gloria Gamba. This gives Team "A" three wins, Team "C" one win and Team "B" no wins.

TENNIS TOURNEY

The first elimination round of the intermediate and advanced tennis players has been held, with the following results: Bessie Provost defeated Marilyn Stenson by a score of 6-0; Betty Henri defeated Despo Delevois, 6-0; Rita Kroner over Helen Blount, 6-0; Carmel Mullin over Janey Baker, 6-2; Evelyn Lonich defeated Doris Hickenbottom, 6-3; Marion Sirnon over Beatrice Piegais, 6-2; Helen Johnson over Florence Stefanelli, 6-1; Gloria Gamba defeated Betty Blue, 6-2; Mary Falbo defeated Mary Thomas, 6-1, and in the closest match, Aileen O'Haire defeated Jeanette Jave by a score of 6-4.

SAN JOSE PLAY

At the recent play day at San Jose, with San Jose State, San Francisco State, Salinas Junior College and San Francisco Junior College competing, San Francisco State came out first in several of the events: Bessie Provost won the singles tennis tourney, and Gloria Gamba and Evelyn Lonich took the doubles tournament. Against San Jose State and San Francisco JC, Floria Young took the backstroke event in the swimming matches, and Rosanne Jaensch, the free style and breast-stroke. Mary Falbo was winner of the badminton tournament, and against Salinas JC, State, won one and lost one in the softball tournament.

BADMINTON TOURNEY AT JC

Today at 3:00 State will meet San Francisco Junior College in a badminton tournament at the JC campus. Some of the WAA women participating will be Sylvia Zeitler, Mary Falbo, Helen Hansen and Gloria Gamba.

GYM SHORTS

By Paul Hungerford

Ah yes! In the balmy May afternoon as the sun beams happily down on the new campus . . . amid thuds, groans and yelps, we find that the State gridders have already started scrimmage. According to Dick Boyle's comment, we must have the makings of a great team! "No team can be a top-notcher unless there's a little blood spilled on the scrimmage field," exclaimed the Gator's mighty mentor.

And blood there was, as Howie Hill received a gash over his eye; Jack Root was on the receiving end of a slightly squashed nose, and Amos Adkins walked into a leg swing thrown by scrimmage teammate. Not bad for the first day out, huh? I'm going to hate to see the fellas on May 24 when they play the intra-team game . . . Dick Wind with his taped fist; Bob Seiler with his taped wrist, and Walt "Super" Suggs . . . just taped.

Speaking of gridders . . . it comes into mind, because of incessant popping off of Lee Upshaw, State pole vaulter, poor little Carter Toler, half back and sprint star, leads a hectic life. It seems that Carter is suing the city, according to the most esteemed Upshaw, regarding the height of the local sidewalks in relation to "Half Pint's" lower extremity.

Back in the "Gay 90's" it was the fad to sing with a group commonly known as the "Barber Shop Quartette." Now, however, the scene and the years have changed . . . the groups now attach themselves to a football team and after performances pass the hat for the "coke." St. Mary's had their Singing Saints, and State, not to be different, organized a shower room sextette, known as the Gurgling Gators.

The group includes: Ed Melendez, Ferdie Castillo, Jack Root and several others who at their own request wish to remain unknown. These fellas are not just a bunch of owl-hoots, but they can really sing!

Recently seen chewing his fingernails off (about half-way up to his knuckle) was none other than the "great" Gil Soloman. Gil, as you know, is scheduled to box "Hairy" Harry Erlich tonight in the gym on the Sport Night program. Sport Night is sponsored by the Phi Epsilon Mu, men's honorary fraternity. George Thayer, boxing M. C., extends a hearty welcome to all, and promises a unique concluding bout.

State Netmen Trounce Menlo

San Francisco State's tennis team ended a successful season with a smashing 8 to 1 triumph over the Menlo Junior College net squad last Friday on the State courts. The Gator net stars won easily, dropping only two sets in the entire tournament, even though number two man Maurice Sockalov and number four man Ed Murray did not play.

Most remarkable match of the day was the number three singles, with Gene Phillips (playing that position for the first time) sweeping through Tom Anderson of Menlo 6-1, 6-0. Joe Woolfson, number one man, took Menlo's Bill Williams easily 6-2, 6-1, to end the intercollegiate season with a perfect record of ten victories and no defeats.

Complete results in the State - Menlo game are as follows:

Woolfson (S) d. Williams (M) 6-2, 6-1; Whitney (S) d. Phillips (M) 6-1, 6-1; Phillips (S) d. Anderson (M) 6-1, 6-0; Barker (S) d. Levine (M) 6-2, 6-1; Mangenson (M) d. Pritchard (S) 6-4, 4-6, 6-2; Bell (S) d. Robinson (M) 6-2, 6-1; Woolfson and Whitney (S) d. Williams and Anderson (M) 6-2, 6-0; Barker and Phillips (S) d. Phillips and Mangenson (M) 6-3, 6-0; Scharetg and Bell (S) d. Levine and Robinson (M) 9-7, 6-1.

Victory over Menlo left the State netters with a season record of seven wins and four defeats in intercollegiate competition. The complete record, with the exception of two practice tourneys with Treasure Island, is as follows:

State 2,	Santa Clara	7
State 5,	U. S. F.	4
State 8,	Marin J. C.	1
State 4,	San Jose State	5
State 9,	S. F. J. C.	0
State 5,	Santa Clara	4
State 4,	C. O. P.	5
State 3,	San Jose State	6
State 9,	Humboldt State	0
State 9,	S. F. J. C.	0

State 8,	Menlo J. C.	1

Sixty Greet Coaches For Spring Grid; Ends, Guards, Quarters Look Strong

Over 60 candidates, including ten regulars from last year, greet Coaches Dick Boyle and Ray Kaufman at the start of spring football practice at the new campus. The Gators will use the modified "T" formation for the first time. It is now in the experimental stage and if it turns out as expected, it will be used with other formations next fall.

BOB SEILER

The team is scrimmaging daily in preparation for an intra-squad game next Friday at the new campus. This game will give fans a preview of next fall's grid machine.

LOWELL PLAYERS

Six experienced "T" formation players are: Rudy Clemente, Bill Buchanan, Howie Hill, Norm Willback, Ed MacArthur and Harry Misthos, all of whom were on the Lowell championship team when they introduced the formation in the prep league.

According to comments made by Boyle, the guards, ends and quarterbacks look strong and capable. The tackle spot looks weak on one side, and the coach is relying heavily on Len Canavan, veteran of last year's team, to hold down the other side of the line. The backs for the most part are inexperienced, but they are fighters. Carter Toler, the track team sprint star, is holding down the right half position . . . Toler is a "south-paw," and with his break-away speed he makes an ideal half. Azavedo, another lefty, is also a handy man to have around. Bill Buchanan and Rudy Clemente, both right handers, have had a lot of experience working on the "T," and both have proved themselves capable left halfbacks.

GOOD QUARTERBACKS

Bob Seiler, the fastest of the three quarterbacks, along with Armand Quartini and Norm Willback round off the team with one-two punch. Quartini is the most experienced, having played with USF before the war. Boyle says, "Quartini is cool headed and a fairly smooth ball-handler, and is being counted on to play a lot of ball next fall."

Phil Cali is the only veteran of Dick Boyle's pre-war teams. Phil is a little rusty perhaps, but by the start of the fall term he should be in good condition and ready to play rough football.

In the fullback position, Boyle can see only one prospect so far, but the season has only started, and it is almost impossible to predict anything this early.

BIG TURN-OUT IN FALL

The coaching staff expects 75 to turn out in the fall; of these 30 will be chosen for the varsity and the others will be placed on the jayvees. Although negotiations are still being made, a rough draft of next fall's schedule is made up. It is as follows: On Sept. 28 State will meet Placer College at the new campus; Oct. 12, State vs. Cal Aggies at Davis; Oct. 19, State vs. Cal Poly at San Luis Obispo; Oct. 26, State vs. Humboldt here, and State vs. Chico here on Nov. 1.

At the rate the boys have been scrimmaging, the team looks, on the whole, like a first class ball club. Tuesday night, when the team was divided equally, Carter Toler, one of the "purple" team, sliced off tackle through a big hole for 80 yards for the score. The "gold" team hadn't been sitting idle, for a pass from Willback to Adkins, the former "Singing Saint," was completed, and Adkins raced through the purple team, cutting and weaving for 60 yards and was finally brought down in "pay-dirt" after dragging a tackle for five yards.

INTRAMURAL FLASHES

By Tom Thorp

The intramural season is rapidly drawing to a close, with finals this week in the tennis and ping pong tourneys (men's singles divisions), and the final round and playoffs in the volley ball tournament slated for today. Sigma Pi Sigma meets Nossen All-Stars in the gym at noon.

The intramural tennis tournament was decided last Tuesday at noon on one of the upper courts, with Gene Phillips taking a hard fought decision from Jack Trippy 6-3, 6-3. The match was unique in this year's tennis history in that there was an umpire to call the shots. This season even the intercollegiate matches haven't rated umpires.

Final in the men's intramural ping pong tournament will be played this evening as a part of the Phi Epsilon Mu sports night, according to latest reports. If the match takes place as scheduled, the contestants will be Joe Woolfson and John Holden. There has been no further progress in the ping pong tournament.

"Chuck" Damonte Wins Gator Bat Crown With 345 Mark

Chuck Damonte pounded out a .345 average for the past season to lead the State nine in hitting. Damonte also collected 20 hits, to lead in that department, while Bob Jones scored the most runs, 14. Armand Quartini topped the club in two-baggers, Jones and Stu Saunders were the only players to hit a triple, and Jones, Damonte and Quartini hit homers.

Averages for all games are as follows:

Hundreds of painters and craftsmen find their inspiration for constant creative effort in the beauty of this city," she said. "Advancement of community art interest should increase the market for creative work of artists and students, and should advance fields of exploration and enjoyment of all."

TURN ABOUT

This story came out of journalism classes at the University of Kentucky when the class was discussing the value of evidence presented in a sensational murder case. The question was raised whether the victim would turn to face his attacker before turning to flee.

A returned war vet in the class spoke: "I believe the man would have turned toward the slayer before running. My reason is that I once came face to face unexpectedly with a German soldier. He crouched and half lunged toward me before turning to run."

There was a pause and then the vet pointed to his wrist. "This is his watch I'm wearing."

LEGAL LIGHTS

Law books in braille and three centuries of English law can be found in the University of Texas Law Library. The library is the second largest in the south with nearly 65,000 books. Duke University has the largest law library in the South.

Unusual volumes in the library are the microfilmed records and briefs of all the cases in the United States Supreme Court since 1938, several hundred books of reports on cases decided in English courts during the 17th, 18th, and 19th centuries, and nearly all the reports of Canada and the provinces of Africa, Australia, and India.

An honest coed at University of Kansas came right back at the "Laws" recently. Instead of scurrying by a horde of wolfish lawyers on the steps of Green hall, she paused at their whistles and whipped out a sign.

Printed on it in big red letters were the simple words: "Thank you!"
